CHARDONNAY - Dry White

The monastic peace of Beit Gemal seems to infuse this dry, balanced wine that has been aged in stainless steel barrels for up to two years. Made with 100% Chardonnay grapes from the Mediterranean limestone plains west of Jerusalem. Serve chilled on its own, or with salmon and shellfish, chicken, pasta and salads.

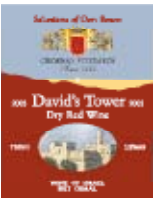

£6.45 per bottle. £77.40 for a 12 bottle case

STAR OF BETHLEHEM - Cab.Sauvignon

A full bodied, balanced wine made with 100% Cabernet Sauvignon grapes from vineyards on the Mediterranean plains west of Jerusalem. These well-drained soils produce a distinctive wine with characteristic blackcurrant aromas, aged for a year in oak barrels. Excellent with hearty casseroles, grilled steak and cheese.

£6.45 per bottle. £77.40 for a 12 bottle case

DAVID'S TOWER - Dry Red

A light, dry red wine made from the local black "Balady Asmar" grape - named after King David's Tower in Jerusalem. It is one of the Holy Land's distinctive wines, aged for a year in oak barrels, and has a delicate spicy aftertaste. Drink at room temperature or chilled, with pizza, pasta and chicken, or on its own.

£5.75 per bottle. £69.00 for a 12 bottle case

MESSA - Medium Sweet White

From the Mediterranean plains west of Jerusalem, Riesling grapes are late-harvested and carefully selected to produce this light, fresh wine. It has been aged for two years in stainless steel barrels and produced in accordance with the Code of Canon Law 1983, Canon 924. Certified by the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem.

£4.95 per bottle. £59.40 for a 12 bottle case
